Darrell Parsons Background Information

Darrell Parsons comes to the Expanded Learning Division with 19 years of experience in education. He started his career as an elementary school teacher for eight years, teaching fourth, fifth, and sixth grades. He then became an Education Programs Consultant at the California Department of Education (CDE) in the Charter Schools Division for two years, overseeing charter schools authorized by the State Board of Education. He moved into the Career and College Transition Division, working for four years on career pathways efforts for the CDE as well as overseeing the Linked Learning Pilot Program. In 2014, he moved to the Sacramento County Office of Education (SCOE) to serve as a coordinator for the California Career Pathways Trust implementation in the Sacramento Valley region for three years. This was followed by serving one year as the coordinator for the Adult Education Block Grant Technical Assistance Project for SCOE. Finally, Darrell served as the vice principal of an elementary school in Sacramento before returning to the CDE to join the EXLD team.
